

(The Captain of the Steam Boat Pocahontas concurs in the above statement.)

D

The following amount was received in subscription from Citizens and Insurance companies of Baltimore, $23,700 00

Amount appropriated by the city council of Baltimore in March and payable in November, 5,000 00

Discount paid on above appropriation, 226 67 4,773 33

Total Amount; $28,473 33

The Boat since she was first employed, has just been enabled to pay her expenses and repairs up to the present time and is now clear of all debts.

JOSHUA JONES:

Dear Sir,

Above I hand to you a statement of monies received for the Steam Boat Relief, from subscription and appropriation of the city council of Baltimore. A statement of the vessels that have arrived and departed during the ice this season will be sent to you, so soon as it can be ascertained, and which would have had neither egress nor ingress, if the Boat had not kept open a track through the ice.

Your obedt. servant,

CHAS. W. KARTHAUS,
Pres't. Baltimore and Ch. St. T. and Ice Boat Co.

E

Baltimore, 20th January, 1835.

JOSHUA JONES, Esq.

Dear Sir,

Since the return of Mr. Karthaus from Annapolis, the board have had an estimate made of what will